CORRESPONDENCE

1. Draft correspondence dated May 10, 2011 concerning (R-6) Limited Accessibility apprentice trainee outline.
2. Correspondence dated May 26, 2011 concerning the (3 to 2) special vote of the Board in favor of allowing DCP to issue apprentice / trainee registration cards to persons that engage in "Conveyor Work" provided such employer is licensed as a contractor for such work or that such employer company employs a licensed contractor and has sufficient licensed contractors or journeypersons to properly supervise such.

The Board voted unanimously to void the statement above concerning the (3 to 2) special vote. The Board voted unanimously to requiring all applications, including "Trainee Applications" come before the Board for their review and approval. The Board unanimously concluded that the (3 to 2) special vote reflected above was to permit DCP to issue "Trainee Cards" in the interim to Walgreens employees seeking "Conveyor Trainee Cards" until such time the Board reviews and renders a decision concerning the four Walgreens (R-8) Limited Conveyor Journeyperson applications at their May 19, 2011 meeting.

NOTE: Regulations of CT State Agencies Title 20, Section 20-332-15a(f)(3) when registration is requested for an area of the trade which is not available through the Connecticut Department of Labor, said contractor shall make his request to the appropriate board prior to the employment of the apprentice.

3. Sample "Application for Trainee License".

The Board Voted unanimously to require that all "Application for Trainee License" reflect the category type of "Trainee License" being sought by the applicant.

4. Correspondence dated June 6, 2011 requesting an (R-6) Limited Accessibility helper apprentice card for John Bouthillier.

The Board voted unanimously to deny Mr. Bouthillier's application due to lack of a required "Apprenticeship Completion Certificate".

COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC PRESENT

Mr. Adams informed the Board that the CT Department of Labor Apprenticeship Division does not have an (R-6) Limited Accessibility apprenticeship program available to employers not having a business in CT. Mr. Adams said that he does not have a business in CT, and that Massachusetts does not have an apprenticeship program or license category to perform (R-6) Limited Accessibility work.

Mr. DeRosa said that the CT Department of Labor Apprenticeship Division does not offer apprenticeship registration programs for (R-8) Limited Conveyor and (R-10) Limited Conveyor licensure categories. Therefore, pursuant to Regulations of CT State Agencies Title 20, Section 20-332-15a(f)(3), when registration is requested for an area of the trade which is not available through the Connecticut Department of Labor, said contractor shall make his request to the appropriate board prior to the employment of the apprentice.”

Mr. DeRosa said that because the (R-6) Limited Accessibility Journeyman category license is a licensure category requiring apprenticeship registration in Connecticut, the CT Department of Labor Apprenticeship Division will in fact establish an apprenticeship program for such category licensure.

Mr. DeRosa is asking that the Board Secretary inquire with the CT Department of Labor Apprenticeship Division to clarify the availability of the (R-6) Limited Accessibility Journeyman apprenticeship program in CT and report back to the Board at their next meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 12, 2011.
