MONDAY SEPT. 14TH

HARTFORD: Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz today is reminding Connecticut voters they can still register to vote for municipal primaries scheduled for September 15, 2009. Eligible voters in communities holding September primaries can register to vote in person until 12:00 noon on Monday September 14th at their Registrar of Voters office. The mail-in voter registration deadline was yesterday, Thursday September 10th.

“Crucial budget and educational issues are facing many towns in Connecticut as voters go to the polls to choose municipal leaders this year, so it is imperative to register to vote!” said Secretary Bysiewicz. “Anyone who wants a say in the future direction of their community in these tough times should make sure they go to town hall and fill out the registration card in person by 12:00 noon on September 14th. This is especially true for those who missed the mail-in registration deadline”

Polls will open statewide from 6:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. for the Municipal primaries on Tuesday September 15th.
