- PRESS RELEASE -

LESS THAN TWO WEEKS LEFT TO REGISTER ONLINE, BY MAIL AND IN-PERSON

HARTFORD: With the November 1 deadline to register to vote online, by-mail or in-person less than two weeks away, Connecticut Secretary of the State Denise Merrill is urging anyone still unregistered to act fast.

Thousands of new voters are registering to vote in advance of the November 8 election. The Secretary of the State reports that there are now 2,080,383 registered voters and that 261,166 have registered since the start of 2016.

Secretary Merrill said, "Voter registration deadlines are fast approaching and people are wisely taking advantage of every available way to register. Same-day registration will be in effect on November 8, however, voters must realize that there could be very long lines on Election Day. The safest way to be sure you will be able to vote for president in 2016 is to register before November 1 and check your existing registration to confirm that it is up to date."

Citizens have until November 1 to register to vote online, by mail or in-person. Election Day registration is in effect on November 8, though lines are expected to be long.

For more information about registering to vote, go to: myvote.ct.gov.
